Whether you want a traditional ceremony....

A ceremony celebrating your cultural heritage....

Or something more unusual

Not a problem!

Some couples ask for a sample

This is a taste of the look and feel of wedding ceremonies created and conducted by Jennifer Cram.

No two are alike because your ceremony is individually crafted to reflect your personalities your values, your vision, your style.

You are always centre stage.

Your ceremony
is the centrepiece
of your wedding day
The words you say
and the feelings you share transform you
And set the mood for the celebration that follows
Your relationship is unique Your ceremony can be just as unique

From the Introduction to the ceremony
Today we celebrate. Hopes, dreams, laughter ...

... a life that is greater than any they could each have made alone.

From the Reflections on Marriage

Marriage wants more than love; it also wants ...

... a deep emotional bond that nourishes your hearts and your spirits.

When you choose a ritual to include in your ceremony it will be tailored to suit you. I do not use the tired old words you see everywhere, but create something fresh, a ritual that has real significance for you.

From the Ritual of the Hands

When two people come together in love they come to each other not with empty hands but

...the hands of your forever friend, your true love.

I promise to be your faithful and appreciative husband ...

...loving and honouring
you all the days of my life.

Many thanks for the beautiful ceremony you created for our wedding. You helped to make the most important part of our day so special. We so much appreciate all the exceptional efforts you made to have everything perfect for the day. We really enjoyed working with you - it was a real privilege to share that special time in our relationship with such a kind, caring and professional celebrant.

Jennifer was genuinely interested in getting to know us as a couple in order to design a unique experience just for us. When we read the draft copies we both had tears in our eyes and couldn't believe how well our notes and dot points on the questionnaire had been sculpted into beautiful words. The whole ceremony ran extremely well. Our guests couldn't stop raving about how wonderfully intimate it was for many weeks after and how thoroughly they enjoyed it.

We both thoroughly enjoyed our ceremony because it was personal and heartfelt, and a very clear reflection of the feelings that K and I share for each other. The thought and the planning that you had clearly put into our ceremony meant that it really felt like it was all for us.*

Every guest that attended our wedding has since told us how spectacular they thought our ceremony was. They loved the stone pouring and the love letters and most had never seen either of these rituals done before. And speaking of the love letters, I highly recommend this to all couples for your future ceremonies. They add a personal touch that I can't even describe, and for some, it may be the only love letter they ever receive from their new husband!

Because of the love and personality that you brought to our big day, you will always mean a lot to us both.

Now it's your turn...

Together let's create a memory that will make your hearts smile
